Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Every hospital and nursing home depends on the men and women of its Central Service Department, those people who order and receive supplies, bear the responsibility for the pick-up, cleaning, packaging, sterilizing and redistribution of reusable supplies; and,

WHEREAS, While the responsibilities of these individuals are crucial to patient care, the recognition for their efforts is sparce at best; and,

WHEREAS, The men and women involved in these activities are from numerous medical backgrounds; they may be operating room technicians, Licensed Practical Nurses, Emergency Room Nurses or Infection Control Nurses; and,

WHEREAS, The American and International Associations of Central Service Personnel have permanently selected the second week in October as Central Service Week; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of the many contributions Central Service Personnel make to the quality of health care in the State of South Dakota and to offer, on behalf of the people of this State, a heartfelt thank you for the dedication of these medical professionals:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 13-19, 1985, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twelfth Day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Five
